

Pamela Knapp

Pamela Knapp was born in Nuremberg in 1958. She studied Economics in Munich and Berlin and completed the Advanced Management Program (AMP) at Harvard Business School. She began her career in 1987 at Deutsche Bank AG, followed by a position in M&A advisory at Fuchs Consult GmbH. Since 1992, she has held various management positions at Siemens, including serving from 2000 to 2004 as Head of Corporate Development Executives, with responsibility for executive development and the compensation system for senior executives. From 2004 to 2008, she was a member of the divisional executive board and Chief Financial Officer of Power Transmission and Distribution, with responsibility for finance, controlling, procurement, IT, and regional operations in Western Europe and Latin America.

From 2009 to 2014, she served as Chief Financial Officer of GfK SE, where she further strengthened her expertise in corporate governance, M&A transactions, corporate finance, accounting, and corporate transformation.

Pamela Knapp is a member of the Supervisory Boards of LANXESS AG and Signify N.V. In addition, she has been a member of the German Monopolies Commission since 1 July 2020 and has served as a member of the Board of Directors of the Franco-German Chamber of Commerce and Industry since 2017.

From June 2013 to June 2025, Pamela Knapp was a member of the Board of Directors and Chair of the Audit and Risk Committee of Compagnie de Saint-Gobain.

Apart from these positions, Pamela Knapp has not held any further positions on administrative, management or supervisory bodies of a company during the past five years and is not and has not been a partner in a partnership outside the Douglas Group.