

Pamela Knapp

Pamela Knapp was born on March 8, 1958, in Nuremberg, Germany. She studied economics in Munich and Berlin and completed the Advanced Management Program (AMP) at Harvard Business School. Her career began in 1987 at Deutsche Bank AG, followed by a position in M&A consulting at Fuchs Consult GmbH. From 1992, she held various management positions at Siemens before joining the Executive Board of Power Transmission and Distribution in 2004, where she was responsible for this business area.

From 2009 to 2014, she was Chief Financial Officer at GfK SE, where she was responsible for corporate governance, M&A transactions, corporate finance, accounting, and risk management. Ms. Knapp has been a member of the Supervisory Board of LANXESS AG since 2018 and has been on the Board of Directors of Signify NV since 2020. Her extensive experience makes her a recognized leader in international corporate management.

Pamela Knapp is also active on various supervisory boards and control bodies:

- Member of the Supervisory Board and Chairwoman of the Audit Committee of Douglas AG, Düsseldorf
- Member of the Supervisory Board and Chairwoman of the Audit Committee of LANXESS Deutschland GmbH, Cologne
- Member of the Supervisory Board of Signify NV, Eindhoven, Netherlands
- Member of the Board of Directors and Chairwoman of the Audit Committee of Compagnie de Saint-Gobain S.A., Courbevoie, France (until 6/2025)

Other significant activities:

Pamela Knapp has been a member of the Monopolies Commission since July 1, 2020. She has also been a member of the Presiding Committee of the German-French Chamber of Commerce and Industry and a member of its Board of Directors since 2017. Her experience and expertise make her a recognized leader in international corporate management.

Apart from these roles, Pamela Knapp has not held any other positions in administrative, management, or supervisory bodies outside this group in the last five years and is not a partner in any partnership outside the group.