

Dr. Daniel Pindur

Dr. Daniel Pindur was born in 1978 and studied finance and economics at WHU, Otto Beisheim School of Management in Vallendar, Germany, from 1998 to 2002, where he earned his degree (Diplom-Kaufmann). He began his professional career as an analyst at Goldman Sachs. He worked for Goldman Sachs until 2004, before deciding to pursue a doctorate in economics, which he completed at the University of Ulm in 2005. Dr. Daniel Pindur then joined CVC Capital Partners, where he is Managing Director of CVC Advisers (Germany) GmbH and holds the position of Managing Partner and co-head of the Frankfurt office. He is also a member of CVC's private equity board and holds various board positions at CVC portfolio companies.

Memberships in administrative and supervisory bodies:

- Member of the Supervisory Board of Breitling S.A.
- Member of the Supervisory Board of Tipico Group Ltd.
- Member of the Supervisory Board of TQG
- Member of the Supervisory Board of Sunday Natural
- Member of the Supervisory Board CGM

Previous memberships:

- Member of the Advisory Board of DKV Mobility
- Member of the Advisory Board of Messer Industries
- Member of the Advisory Board of IronSource

Apart from these roles, Dr. Daniel Pindur has not held any other positions in administrative, management, or supervisory bodies outside this group in the last five years and is not a partner in any partnership outside the group.